

24-month STEM Extension of Optional Practical Training

Summary: The 12-month limit on OPT can be extended by 24 months, for certain STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics) degree holders ONLY. Visit <http://www.ice.gov/sevis/stemlist.htm> to determine if your field and CIP Code are included in the list.

Eligibility Requirements for F-1 Students:

- x Be on a period of standard Post-Completion OPT
- x Hold a degree in a field of study (indicated on the 20) which qualifies as STEM eligible according to the official STEM Designated Degree Program PDF [
- x Have a PAID job from an employer enrolled in E-Verify
- x Demonstrate the job is directly related to a STEM
- x Prepare and sign the Training Plan Form I983
- x Apply at least 30 DAYS before your current Post-Completion period of OPT expires. YOU CANNOT APPLY ONCE YOUR 12 MONTH OPT EXPIRES.

Requirements for F-1 Student Employers:

- x Be enrolled in E-Verify
- x Have a Federal Employer Identification Number
- x Agree to a terms of STEM OPT by completing their sections of the Training Plan (Form I983), assisting with the annual evaluation, and reporting to ISSS your employment termination within 5 days.

When to Apply:

Apply up to 90 days before your current EAD expires and NO LATER than 30 days prior to the end of your current Post-Completion OPT. You must submit your new STEM OPT-20 to USCIS within 60 days of creation by ISSS.

If you timely file your STEM OPT extension application, you will be able to continue employment while your application is pending, until a final decision is made by USCIS or for 180 days beyond the expiration of your Post-Completion OPT, whichever comes first. It normally takes up to 90 days for USCIS to process STEM OPT applications.

Travel during a PENDING STEM OPT application

It is possible to travel during a Pending STEM OPT application, however it could be risky as it is up to the discretion of the border officer to permit your reentry. If you applied for STEM OPT in a timely manner, your 12-month OPT EAD card is automatically extended. If you need to travel while STEM OPT is pending, consult with ISSS first.

Gather the following items for your application:

To ISSS:

___ Completed and signed STEM OPT Request Form at end of packet (do NOT mail this to USCIS)

___ Completed Training Plan-983 form (do NOT mail this to USCIS)

(For "Hints for Completing your I-983," see below).

The purpose of the Form I-983 is to ensure that students continue a rigorous training program that builds on the skills obtained as a full time student. The student and their supervisor must agree on the components of the plan as follows: the role of the student in the work place, the goals and objectives of the proposed training, how the employer will provide oversight of the plan, and what set of measures and assessments will be used. Both student and supervisor must sign this form and send it to ISSS for review.

Note: Section 2 of the I-983 asks for your start date of employment. Put the STEM OPT start date

Travel signatures on page 2 of the I-20 are only valid for 6 months from the date of the most recent signature. If your travel signature has expired, come to ISSS during to request a renewal.

Cap Gap Extension

The H1B "cap gap" occurs when an F student's status and OPT work authorization expires after April 1, and before the student can start approved H1B employment during the next fiscal year that begins on October 1. For example, a student currently on OPT on April 1 who files an H1B petition that requests an employment start date of October 1 of the following fiscal year will have their duration of status and OPT employment authorization extended to October 1. This is what is called the "cap gap".

However, if you need an I-20 for any other reason to prove you are in cap status, contact ISSS. You should send an e-mail to ISSS with end date on EAD card, current mailing address, current employer name and address including the start date of that employment, and employer name and address during Cap-

I agree to all of the following:

1. I understand the regulations regarding OPT and that I need to abide by all the regulations in order to maintain my status.
